

PAINTINGS MADE IN CHINA

By FREDERIC CLAY BARTLETT

Frederic Clay Bartlett was born in Chicago, Ill., June 1, 1873. He studied under Gysis in Munich, and under Collin, Aman Jean and Whistler in Paris.

Mr. Bartlett is a member of the Allied Artists of America, Chicago Society of Artists, National Society of Mural Painters, and the Royal Academy of Munich.

He was awarded the Silver Medal, St. Louis Exposition, 1904; Honorable Mention, Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, 1908; Cahn Prize, Art Institute of Chicago, 1910; Silver Medal, Panama-Pacific Exposition, San Francisco, 1915.

Mural paintings and windows in the Chicago University Club as well as mural paintings in the University of Chicago, Second and Fourth Presbyterian Churches, and the Council Chamber, City Hall, Chicago, were done by Mr. Bartlett. Paintings by him have been purchased for the permanent collection of Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, The Friends of American Art, Chicago, Ill., and the Chicago Municipal Purchase.

HONGKONG

1. Hongkong Harbor.
2. Hongkong Harbor, Evening.

CANTON

3. Canton in Sunlight
4. Canton Facades
5. Canton Boats
6. Chang Temple
7. Temple Yard
8. Shameen Bridge, Canton

SHANGHAI

9. Pavilion
10. Willow Tea House

SOOCHOW

11. Soochow Street

PEKIN

12. Theater
13. Theater
14. Jade Pagoda
15. Yellow Temple
16. Temple of Prayer
17. Imperial Rock
18. Marble Boat
19. Church of Our Lady of the Sea, Manila

THE DETROIT INSTITUTE OF ARTS

FEBRUARY, 1922