

SPECIAL EXHIBITION OF
PAINTINGS BY
SAMANTHA L. HUNTLEY

October 18th to November 7th

1910

MRS. SAMANTHA L. HUNTLEY was born in Troy, N. Y.; studied at the Art Students League in New York, and in Paris with M. Jules LeFebvre, anatomy at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, and composition with Eugene Grasset. Spent a year in Spain, studying and copying Velasquez. For several years she was an instructor in the Emma Willard Art School of Troy, which position she resigned because her numerous commissions demanded all her time.

She has painted portraits of Governor Frank W. Higgins for the New York State Capitol, and other prominent people of her state, and she has executed commissions in Madison, Wis., and St. Louis, Mo.

She has exhibited in the Boston Art Club, Society of American Artists, National Academy of Design, Albright Art Gallery at Buffalo, Wisconsin Historical and State Library, Albany Historical and Art Society and St. Louis Woman's Club, in this country, and at the French Salon at Paris, and Royal Academy at London.
