

SPECIAL EXHIBITION OF A
COLLECTION OF OIL PAINTINGS

By Mr. H. H. Gallison

April 15th to May 1st, 1910

MR. H. H. GALLISON

MR. GALLISON was born in Boston in 1850, studied there and later in Paris. His work is in landscape, seldom with figures, and represents usually large and simple aspects of nature seen through the soft and tender mists of atmosphere near the coast.

TITLES

1. Lengthening Shadows.
2. A Wet Day.
3. The Blue Shadows.
4. The Northwest Wind.
5. The Marsh at Low Tide.
6. The Shower on the Hills.
7. Cloud Shadows.
8. The Edge of the Clearing.
9. Morning Shadow.
10. Gleam of the Sun.
11. The Golden Haze.
12. Sun Spots.
13. Late Afternoon.
14. Sunlight and Shadow in the Woods.
15. The Old Sand Dune.
16. Floating Mists from the Sea.
17. Morning on the Sands.
18. In the Sand Dunes.
19. Mist Over the Valley.
20. The Cool Brook.
21. The Fog Lifting.
22. Hills in the West.
23. Marshes in the Summer.