ABSTRACT: Collection consists of five editions of the Detroit University School yearbook, “Helicon”, along with a booklet from 1915 announcing “The New Detroit University School”. The editions of the “Helicon” date from 1906, 1908, 1912, 1913, and 1935. Edsel Ford attended the school from 1905 to 1912, and is mentioned as an alumnus in the 1913 edition. Several of the editions appear to have been removed from other Ford Motor Company accessions in the Research Center holdings, including 64.167.1 and 64.167.13.

ACCESS RESTRICTIONS: The collection is open for research.
