ABSTRACT:	The Frerer Family Photographs consists of five paper-bound photograph albums that contain 68 snapshots and 11 photographic negatives taken during a family vacation in July 1952. The Frerer family traveled to Lost Land Lake in northern Wisconsin and stayed for two weeks at a resort, first in the owner's cabin and then in a different cabin. The photographs were taken by the donor's parents, and include views of the family at the two cabins, with the family dog and car (a Plymouth), with a fishing boat, and other related activities.
ACCESS RESTRICTIONS:	The collection is open for research.
